St Augustine's Notices

August Changes to Service Pattern. There will be NO 9.30am services for the month of August and the 6pm Evening Service will also take a break. These services will restart on Sunday 3rd September. The 11am summer services will be family-friendly and a mix of worship styles.

♪ We are Trying Something New! As an experiment, on Sunday 24 September, we will be having an anthem in the 11am service after the prayers, sung by a special choir drawn together for the occasion. We will be singing 'Lead me Lord' by SS Wesley. The idea is for those who might not be able to commit to being part of the choir every week to have an opportunity to sing from time to time. This is not just an invite to those who join the choir for other occasions such as Christmas, but to the whole congregation, and any friends that might like to join in. You do not need to be able to read music. You will be sent a link or a CD for your part, so that you can learn it in advance of any practice. If you might be interested in being part of it, please contact: John Hyde (01992) 465509 or hydehaven@ntlworld.com or Charles Hudson.

Summer Reading. Don't forget about the lending library at the back of church. There are books on all sorts of topics there, so please feel free to make use of it.
